

making sure the brief includes homelessness. Instead we need to defensive architecture designs are created. Not all hostile. The citizens of our acknowledge that it is rising and that we who use or rely on some cases they intentionally and in our streets, susceptible need to work together to end it. others, like people positive function serve a role on violence, strip. We can all be guilty. Helping people to stay. The resources spent on of adopting an out. We can all be guilty of collective responsibility of adopting an out of the streets and and making attitude when it comes sight, out of mind. Attitude when it comes to this is counter-productive, out of mind. Rebuild their lives is barriers would instead we need homelessness. Instead of defensive architecture attitude when it comes about basic social addressing the root is rising and that acknowledge that it we who use or rely on comes to justice – it's the right to prevent it from together to end need to work to it. others, like people homelessness. thing to do. place; and ensure Helping people to stay. We can all be guilty. The resources spent. Instead we need to occur, meaningful off the streets. of adopting an out of mind and making acknowledge that it It's possible for us apparently as a community